Ref: Criminal Threatening with a Firearm

On April 25th 2009 at approximately 11:09pm Hampton Police Officers on patrol noticed a group of people on J street behind a car stopped in the middle of the road. One member of the group had his hands in the air as though being confronted by someone in the car.

The Officers turned down the street to investigate the activity. As the Police car pulled up one subject in the group informed the Officers that a person in the car had just pulled out a gun and pointed it at him.

Officers stopped the car a short distance away from the initial scene and conducted a high risk traffic stop. Two persons were removed from the car and subsequently taken into custody.

They were identified as:

Dean PERROTTA
Atkinson, NH
21 years of age

Salvatore LISTRO
Atkinson, NH
21 years of age

Officers located a loaded .40 Caliber Handgun in the car. PERROTTA was charged with Felony Criminal Threatening, Carrying a Firearm without a License and Open Container violation. LISTRO was charged with Open Container violation.

PERROTTA was later released on $200 cash and $5000 personal recognizance.

Both PERROTTA and LISTRO are scheduled for arraignment at Hampton District Court on May 11, 2009.
