Re: Vehicle into store front collision

The Hampton Police Department responded to multiple 911 calls on 3/9/16 at approximately 8:52pm, regarding a motor vehicle collision in the area of 369 Ocean Blvd. Upon arrival officers found a blue Dodge Neon had left the south bound lanes of Ocean Blvd, skidded across the sidewalk hitting several chairs and tables before striking the building known as the "Lighthouse Market". As a result of the chairs and tables being struck, several windows were broken in the front of the store.

The driver of the Dodge Neon has been identified as:

Scott Laliberte Jr.
20 yrs of age
Haverhill, MA

The collision is still under investigation and charges may be forthcoming on the driver.
