Ref: Criminal mischief/ vandalism

On January 17, 2010 between the hours of 6pm and 9pm a new variable message board sign was damaged that was staged at the Municipal parking lot on High Street. The board was placed at this location due to the snowstorm and was there to warn vehicle owners that the lot was closed due to impending plowing operations.

The Town of Hampton owns the sign.

The suspect(s) smashed the lock off the control panel and then smashed the display screen. The damage has been valued at approximately $400.00
